

Midcoast Unitarian Universalist Fellowship

Worship Invitation April 10, 2022

April 10: Places of Grace and Unexpected Power - A Passover/Palm Sunday service with the Rev. Anne Bancroft

The Rev. Anne Bancroft joins us from York where she lives with her husband, Dan, and black lab, Whisky. She served most recently as the settled minister at Theodore Parker Unitarian Universalist Church in West Roxbury (Boston), Massachusetts. Engaging our April theme of courage, we'll consider together how our choice of locations (physical, emotional, spiritual) may surprise us with opportunity!

The Rev. Anne Bancroft joins us from York where she lives with her husband, Dan, and black lab, Whisky. She served most recently as the settled minister at Theodore Parker Unitarian Universalist Church in West Roxbury (Boston), Massachusetts.

LIVE AT THE EDGECOMB TOWN HALL AT 10:30 AM
MASKS REQUIRED (Note: N95 masks are most effective)

If you are not fully vaccinated, feeling ill or are unable to attend, please join us via zoom.

join us at 10:30 am using the zoom link below:

Join Zoom Meeting

<https://zoom.us/j/96686220659>

Meeting ID: 966 8622 0659

Telephone: Dial by your location
+1 929 205 6099 US (New York)

April 17: New Vision: An Easter Story

Springtime brings a message of hope, as new life rises from the barrenness of winter. How do we apply that to our own lives and the struggles in the world around us? Can we find hope amid the darkness? Can we see with eyes of possibility and wonder?

Led by Bettina Lehovec and Tiffany Vencile

Message from the Minister

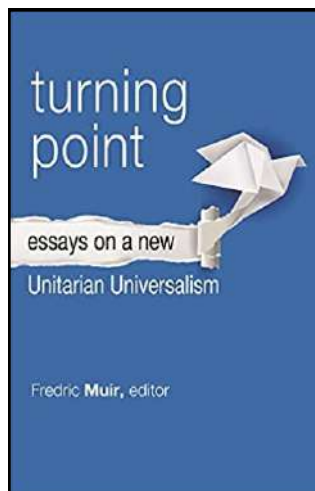

April Vespers

Join us at 6 p.m. Tuesday, April 12, for thirty minutes of readings, music, and shared reflection. Our theme for the month is planting seeds. How will you prepare the earth for your next growing?

Zoom link: <https://us06web.zoom.us/j/89428316883?pwd=ZnFKTStXWTROcnp5eHNPYjZ5REJJdz09>

Book Group Forming

Turning Point: Essays on a New Unitarian Universalism, edited by Reverend Fred Muir. These lively essays offer a bold new vision for our faith, moving from individualism, exceptionalism, and an aversion to authority to generosity, pluralism, and imagination. Three sessions will explore how we got here, where we are now, and some examples of congregations working for change. Dates and time to be determined. Contact Bettina at minister@uumidcoast.org if interested.

A BIG thank you to MUUF from Sue Rockwood and the Ecumenical Diaper Bank! We collected 396 diapers and 26 pads for the Ecumenical Diaper Bank this month! Way to go, team!!!

- Molly Davis

Social Justice

MUUSAN members braved the cold to show their support for the Vision for an Equitable Maine at the Statehouse last Tuesday!

The Passamaquoddy Tribe announced their Rally for Clean Drinking Water for Monday, April 11 at 8 a.m. starting with a press conference outside and then moving to lobbying legislators inside the State House. While the focus is on LD 906, we are also lobbying for LD 1626 (tribal sovereignty) and LD 585 (negotiated agreements with the governor that would give tribes oversight of online sports betting in Maine). Questions: contact meretbainbridge@gmail.com

We'd love for ALL UUs in the state to be on the MUUSAN email alert list! Sign up here to receive MUUSAN alerts. We will never share your email address with anyone else! You'll receive on average 2 emails a month that will keep you in the loop about the important statewide advocacy and public policy actions that Maine UUs can take.

Anti-racism Vigil: The weekly Monday vigil's are from 5:00 pm- 5:30 pm at the Newcastle Veterans Memorial Park. Check PUAR's Facebook page for updates.