August 7: Singing With One Voice

Singing together helps us experience the truth that we find the spirit, the creativity, the courage to face whatever happens when we join our voices together. Let's sing!

MUUF Choir is composed of 12 singers from the Midcoast UU Fellowship. Our accompanist is Jennifer Ober and our director is Susan Borg.

LIVE AT SKIDOMPHA LIBRARY AT 10:30 AM

Upcoming Services

August 14: The Rev. Anne Bancroft, The Stone Soup of Religious Community

Engaging your August theme of Pot Luck, we'll consider together how our faith communities are both created and sustained, creative and sustaining.

August 21: Aram Mitchell, We Were Made for This

An invitation to join and deepen the work of pollinating the field of spiritual leadership with the competency, conviction, courage, and cultural shifts that we need in order to live lives of good faith in a climate-changed world.

Aram Mitchell

Aram Mitchell is a Registered Maine Guide and Wilderness First Responder with a Master of Arts degree in Religious Studies. He lives on a little plot of land in Maine with his spouse, two dogs, a cat, and several chickens.

Message from The Rev. Anne Bancroft

The Rev. Anne Bancroft

Dear Midcoast friends,

Aloha from the island of Oahu where I am presently visiting my mom, returning to New England early next week. I'm looking forward to being with you on August 14th, and can safely speak for my colleagues, the Rev. Donna Dolham and the Rev. Ariel Aaronson-Eves, in saying that we are all excited to begin a new tenure with your fellowship! Our preaching team is working with the Worship Associates to settle the year's calendar so that you will know who will be in the pulpit each week, with the Soul Matters themes providing a frame for our messages. We are looking forward to a great year together!

A hui hou,
Rev. Anne

Save the date!
