Upcoming Service

Sept. 4: “Honoring Our Labors”

Please join us for a lay-led service honoring the work we do now, the work we've done in the past, and the ways in which human labor can become a sacred thing.

Rashi Nessen and Penny Ziarnik, with help from Fellowship friends!

From Rev. Anne Bancroft

Rev. Ann Bancroft

Dear Midcoast friends,

The Instagram post from Soul Matters Sharing Circle this week offered a quote by E.B. White: “The crickets felt it was their duty to warn everybody that summertime cannot last forever.” Oh, yes. The crickets in our neighborhood have been loud and clear with their announcement. And, the tree at the end of the road has turned orange (already!) practically overnight. Even as we love these late August days, it is clear that change is in the air.

May we savor the moments however they arrive to us. They are all gifts.

With gratitude for Tiffany’s thoughts last week and looking forward to what Rev. Donna will be sharing this Sunday, may you each and all be well.

Rev. Anne

You are Invited!

Following the September 11th service, join us for the MUUF picnic at the Robins' farm in Whitefield. More details coming soon!

Tuesday, August 30, 2022 4:00 PM – 5:30 PM: <https://www.lwvme.org/civicism-event/1472?a0=events&a1=>

The League of Women Voters of Maine will be running a Neighbor to Neighbor (N2N) voter registration and canvassing training for anyone who is interested to learn and join us in canvassing. If you are an experienced canvasser, this will be a refresher for you. No background knowledge is required to participate. We encourage you to bring friends and family members who want to know more about voter registration and canvassing in your own neighborhood.

Anti-racism Vigil: The weekly Monday vigil's are from 5:00 pm- 5:30 pm at the Newcastle Veterans Memorial Park. Check PUAR's Facebook page for updates.
